

BHAVANI VENKATA SUBRAMANYA RAMAN
Akademi Award: Carnatic Vocal Music

Born in 1921 in Gooty, Andhra Pradesh, Shri Bhavani Venkata Subramanya Raman took his Sangeet Bhushana degree from Annamalai University in 1943. He studied Carnatic vocal music under the master Tiger Varadachariar.

An eminent vocalist in the realm of Carnatic music, Shri Raman has enriched it as a performer, composer and teacher. He has been heard over All India Radio since 1943. He has composed many Varnams, Kritis and Thillanas, and has trained a number of students.

He has produced gramophone records and cassettes together with his brother Shri B.V. Lakshmanan, and has received many awards and honours. He has been the Asthana Vidwan of the Kanchi Kamakoti Peetam.

Shri Bhavani Venkata Subramanya Raman receives the Sangeet Natak Akademi Award for his contribution to Carnatic vocal music.

Akademi Awards 1998