

T.C. Sundaramoorthy

I present to you, Sir, Sri T.C. Sundaramoorthy.

Born in 1917 he learnt Karagam from his father Chinnaaswamy, a reputed dancer of his days. Later he learnt Puraviattam, the dummy horse dance from T.G. Utarapathi. Sri Sundaramoorthy has also learnt Kathakali and Kathak. He is mainly known as a Karagam and one of the leading dancers of the dummy horse dance. Sri Sundaramoorthy has been honoured by many cultural organisations all over the country.

For his eminence in the field of folk dances and his contribution to its enrichment Sri T.C. Sundaramoorthy receives the Sangeet Natak Akademi Award for Folk and Traditional Dances for 1982.

